Students' Forum, NAPSWI

Aditya Sinha

I enjoy learning, and I enjoy working with people. The possibility that I can be a part of something bigger than myself is always exciting. I want to do something that will be worth remembering, worth enough to make my time and my name mean something. Social sector is not just a career decision (although it did start that way); I have come to find satisfaction and reward in my work. I aim to continue working with the same integrity and dedication that I always have.

Aparna Vyas

I am a Social Work student at Banasthali Vidyapith and have good communication and presentation skills. Basically, I am an extrovert person who loves to talk. My hobbies are travelling, dancing and swimming. Also, I love to learn new languages for which I have enrolled myself in French classes. Further, I want to make my career in development/ social sector to stay in touch with the ground realities of the society.

Avantika Langthasa

I am in the 3rd year of BSW. I strive for progress everyday and I manoeuvre every ounce of my capability to accomplish it. I have always been dedicated and motivated to use my skills and knowledge for a meaningful purpose. I believe that the power of knowledge and education can empower and mobilise the entire community towards a sustainable development and I am keen to promote the same.

Bhawna Rai

I am pursuing MSW from UPRTOU. At present, I'm working as Program Manager in Badlav, a Lucknow based NGO that works for rehabilitation of beggars. Prior to that, I have worked in Sahbhagi Shikshan Kendra, Magic Bus India Foundation and FEED on education, livelihood, MHM and women empowerment. I am also a fellow of Youth ki Awaaz and I dedicate a lot of time on voluntary partnerships.

Dilshad Ahmad

My name is Dilshad Ahmad. I hail from Bihar and am currently pursuing MSW. In addition to English, Hindi and Urdu I can speak Arabic fluently. I'm curious about learning new skills, developing public speaking and skills of relationship building with people. I never hesitate in taking ownership. I love reading and exploring new cultures.

Himani Pant

I am currently pursuing my Master's degree in Social Work at Punjab University and have done my graduation from IGNOU in BSW with 60%. I have almost two years of experience working in a non-government organization in the area of governance. In addition to that, I have done internships in various organizations working in the area of education, child rights and protection, sustainable livelihood, etc.

Juturu Steohan

I am studying MSW in IGNOU. I have appeared in the Civil Services prelims exam in 2018, 2019 and 2020. I have been, working as a freelance faculty/teacher for two years and also as a social action committee leader in Rural Development Trust, Anantapur, A.P. I have participated and conducted many social activities through NGOs in my area and I'm also a student member of the NAPSWI. In my free time, I like to read novels.

Lama Abbas

I realized the transformative power of action when I started a small initiative called "The Mind Café", during the pandemic, to help people cope in a world that didn't make sense. Being a Student Ambassador would enable me to keep going on and that's exciting!

Nishant Sharma

I hail from Himachal Pradesh and presently pursuing first year of Masters in Social Work. I am enthusiastic and eager to explore social work domain. I like to be aware of different aspects of society and want to contribute to it in the best way possible.

Raju Thapa

I am Raju Thapa from Varanasi. I am doing my Masters in Social Work from MGKVP Varanasi. I have worked in many organizations as a volunteer in the past and currently, I'm working with SOS India. I love to interact with children and work with them. Looking forward to working as a Student Ambassador.

Sonal Sharma

An empathetic individual who believes in human progress. The ultimate objective that spawns development while ensuring prosperity of the society. My journey has been about gathering skills and using them to pursue my objectives around social welfare, with ethics taking the front seat. I wish to continue this journey to feed my dream of creating ideas that make a long-lasting impact in the lives of the masses in the most effective and efficient ways.

Samson Raja S

I am Samson Raja S, pursuing MSW at Madras School of Social Work located in Chennai. I always seek to secure a challenging position to expand my learnings, knowledge and skills. I am the General Secretary of the HRSC forum in Social Work Department for the year 2021- 2022. I am excited and eagerly waiting to work as a NAPSWI Student Ambassador.

Zehra Naqvi

I am Zehra Naqvi born and brought up in Bijnor. I have completed my schooling from St-Mary's School Bijnor, and currently pursuing B.S.W (H) from BRAC, University Of Delhi. I am affable in nature and love to interact with new people and to work in new settings. I like writing and reading books.

Student Ambassador Coordinators

Monika

I am pursuing the 3rd semester of Post-Graduation in Social Work from the University of Delhi. I am a good Observer and, a person whose decisions are based on evidence rather than emotions. I have good understanding of finance and accounting. I believe 'there is no single leverage point for advancing knowledge. It should be supported at multiple levels and in different ways'. The NPSWI's Students' forum gives me the platform to practice my faith.

Bandita Baruah

I am currently pursuing MSW from Department of Social Work, Delhi University. I have experience of working as a social worker trainee in MIND India, Guwahati. I have also previously worked for the welfare of children and women at a NGO based on Guwahati. I believe what David Packard once quoted - "The betterment of society is not a job to be left to a few. It's a responsibility to be shared by all." I believe in my potential for working for the empowerment of society and to make a change.

Sidhant Kumar

I'm MSW final year student at Delhi School of Social Work. Currently working as a social worker trainee at NPSWI. A true believer in Gandhian philosophy, working for the marginalized and vulnerable people of the society. Previously worked in different organizations for the empowerment of women and children. Aspiring to work in the public health sector and bring a substantive change in the current status of the Indian public health system.

Himanshu Kulshrestha

I am pursuing Masters in Social Work (MSW) from Department of Social work, Delhi University. I connect myself with social work profession because of my empathetic attitude and a strong desire to make a significant change in the lives of the people who strive for little things in our society. Each step in my professional as well as personal capacity should make this world a better place to live in for all of us. In particular, my interest lies in the social policy and administration.
